SUSQUEHANNA ART MUSEUM

AT THE MARTY AND TOM PHILIPS FAMILY ART CENTER

AWARD-WINNING PHOTOJOURNALISM AT SUSQUEHANNA ART MUSEUM

Harrisburg, PA – The Susquehanna Art Museum is partnering with The Aftermath Project to bring their groundbreaking ten-year retrospective exhibition to Harrisburg. War is Only Half the Story is on view in the Main Gallery October 12, 2019 – January 19, 2020. The exhibition is opening to museum members with a special preview on Friday, October 11 from 5:00 – 7:00pm.

War is Only Half the Story tells the incredibly moving stories of the people left behind after the cameras have moved on from a war zone. Drawing on photographs from forty photographers, these personal and often poetic post-war views unveil not only another side to the devastating effects of war, but also tell the stories of people coming together to rebuild and heal. The exhibition illumines and defines our humanity, while giving visibility to those coping with the lingering ramifications of conflict. It also includes poetry by Nobel Prize winning poet Wisława Szymborska.

Danny Wilcox Frazier, from the Surviving Wounded Knee Series

The Aftermath Project holds a yearly grant competition open to international photographers documenting the aftermath of conflict. The project was founded to help change the way the media covers conflict and to educate the public about the true cost of war and the real price of peace. The Aftermath Project has discovered some of the most groundbreaking photojournalists in the world and has worked with internationally acclaimed photographers addressing post-conflict themes..

This exhibition has been made possible by generous grants from The Foundation to Promote Open Society, PhotoWings, The Compton Foundation, The National Endowment for the Arts, The Meyer Levy Charitable Foundation/Jean Karotkin, Betsy Karel, and The Douglas Cox and Edward Osowski Fund for Photography. This exhibition is toured by Curatorial Assistance Traveling Exhibitions.

Susquehanna Art Museum, located at 1401 North Third Street, Harrisburg, PA 17102, is open to the public Tuesday – Saturday from 10:00 am – 5:00 pm with extended hours on Wednesdays til 7:00 pm. Sundays: 12 noon – 5:00 pm. Free parking is available to museum-goers in the lot immediately adjacent to the rear of the museum at Calder and James Streets.
